

Billy Carson and Natalie Rivera are seniors at Prescott High School. They meet and fall in love in the 2023 spring semester. He's headed to USC on a full-ride tennis scholarship. She has been awarded a prestigious National Science Scholarship. When Natalie becomes pregnant, their idyllic relationship must suddenly confront prevailing state laws and restrictions.

Amanda Barnes is a brilliant sophomore at Prescott, defiant and outspoken, often at odds with curriculum guidelines, school policies and her teachers. Her home life is fraught, living with the wealthy man her mother has recently married. Her world and Billy and Natalie's world are destined to collide.
